Bulgars and Turks Reported in Furious Battle Today at Adrianople

KIRK KILLISSA CONFLICT MAY BE CRISIS OF WAR

England Prepares Fleet Division to go to Mediterranean;
Foresees General War

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 23.—The fall of Vera Cruz, recently captured by General Felix Diaz, head of the latest revolution, was officially reported this afternoon.
General Beltran, who led the federal troops wired the government
the facts, but did not state what disposition was made of Diaz. General Ordaz, Diaz's cousin, was not captured. It is believed he fled when he realized the city was doomed to capture.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The attack by General Beltran, leading the federal forces, on Felix Diaz's rebel force at Vera Cruz started today, according to a cablegram received from Captain Hughes of the cruiser Des Moines. The cablegram gave no indication of the probable outcome.

It is authoritatively stated that if Felix Diaz, now in control of Vera Cruz, Mexico's principal seaport, is captured, he will be summarily shot.

DIAZ REVOLT SPREADING—
OROZCO ONCE MORE ACTIVE
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 23.—Advices received from several widely separate districts indicate a general spread of the Diaz revolt. Mazatlan, the most important port on the west coast, is reported to have been captured by a Diaz force yesterday. The city of Guadalajara is under martial law following a series of riots begun
by adherents of the new rebel leader.

Orozco Also Active
It has been learned from a reliable source that General Jeronimo Trevino, commanding a garrison of 1500
men at Monterey, is about to surrender to Pascual Orozco, who is now
about thirty miles north of Monterey.
This would give Orozco a force of sufficient strength to attempt the march to the south to force a junction with Diaz. Trevino yesterday telegraphed his resignation from the army.

The Herald publishes news of the capture of 104 machine guns and a million cartridges from the cargo of the Ward line steamship Segurana
at Vera Cruz by the Diaz forces.

That the government considers the situation exceedingly critical is shown by the issuance of orders today calling for the mobilization of the entire army for the defense of the capital.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. BACK COTTERILL

Mayor Says Women's Work
Much Like Good Templar
Plan He Founded

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 23.—Women's Christian Temperance Union
workers today endorsed the speech
that Mayor Cotterill of Seattle made before their national body, now in session here.

Mayor Cotterill told of his efforts to heighten the moral atmosphere in the State of Washington, and said the work done by the Women's Christian Temperance Union is similar in many ways to the "Good Templar" plan
founded by himself.

EIGHT STORY BUILDING
Plans Being Drawn for Concrete
Store and Office Building in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 23.—Leighton Mc-Murtrie announces that plans are in the course of preparation by a Los Angeles capitalist for an eight-story Class A store and office building, at the southeast corner of Eighth and D streets. The site is 100x150 feet in size.

Home 'Phone Head Works Women 12 Hours—Fined $50

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—L. C.
Brand, millionaire president of the All Night and Day Bank and president of the Home Telephone Company, Glendale, was fined $50
today for violating the women's 8-hour-day labor law. The Home
company worked the women 12
hours per day.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Thursday;
light north winds.

Dance Was Fatal

To 93-Year-Old Woman
PITTSBURG, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Gertrude Stehle, aged 93, who one week ago last night danced at the golden wedding celebration of her son, Chester M. Weiss, died yesterday. Grandma Stehle delighted the company by going through an old square dance with her son. Next day she said she was as well as usual. That afternoon she went to bed exhausted and never got up again.

Recall Petition for

Marshall Black Ready Today
SAN JOSE, Oct. 23.—The petition
for the recall of Senator Marshall Black, secretary of the Palo Alto Mutual Building and Loan Association, charged with embezzlement, will be finished today and will be filed Thursday, according to Prof. H. L. Green, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee.

Well Known Vaudeville

Actress Dies From Cancer
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Mabel Hite, well known as a vaudeville actress
and as the wife of Mike Donlin, baseball player for the Giants and Pittsburg, died late yesterday afternoon in her home at No. 526 West One Hundred and Eleventh street. Miss Hite had been in poor health for more than a year.

$100,000 Business Block

To Be Built in San Diego
SAN DIEGO, Oct. 23.—Dr. H. C.
Oatman, Granger Building, is planning the construction of a modern business building at the northeast corner of Third and B streets, to cost $100,000. The site is 50 by 100 feet.

Whittier College in

Campaign for $115,000
WHITTIER, Oct. 23.—Whittier College has inaugurated a campaign to raise a fund of $115,000, of which $25, 000 is to be used for new buildings.
The Board of Trade is a prime mover
in the enterprise.

Mackerel Running

Freely at Redondo
REDONDO BEACH, Oct. 23.—The
mackerel are running in large schools here. Several big catches have been made, a local fisherman bringing in a string of 45 of these fish at noon yesterday. Visitors in large numbers are down from the city, enjoying the sport.

Seamen on Cableship Balk

On Loading Cable on Vessel
HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 23.—The Western Union cableship Minia was unable to sail today, because of the refusal of twenty-three seamen to as-ist in loading the cable, claiming their articles do not call for such work.

INDIANANS ON STAND

IN CAMPAIGN PROBE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Six prominent Indianans were examined by the Senate Campaign Contributions committee this afternoon. Senator Bereidge was included in the number.
The committee will adjourn this evening until the election is over.

Larz Whitcomb, the former law partner of Beveridge, testified that in 1904 Beveridge received $57,500 contributions and subsequently returned the donors the entire amount. The contributors were George W. Perkins, $30,000; Clifford Pinchot, $25,000, and Beveridge's cousin, $25,000. This testimony was corroborated by John Hays,
former secretary to the senator.

ARIZONA BELIEVED

TO BE IN LINE FOR

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—John T.
Hughes, State Senator from Tucson, Ariz., who arrived yesterday, predicted equal suffrage in Arizona. He said he firmly believed that the November election would bring to women the right to vote. The action of California in granting suffrage, he said, had created such favorable sentiment in Arizona that the bill had been endorsed by all the parties.

Senator Hughes has been greatly interested in the equal suffrage movement. He introduced in the State Senate last May the constitutional amendment, but it was defeated by one vote. The women of the State then boasted the bill and it was placed on the ballot.

"We are working hard for the women," said the Senator, "and we feel sure that we will win. As yet we have been unable to find any organized fight against the movement. The results of equal suffrage in California helped us."

COL. ROOSEVELT CALIFORNIA IS RESTING WELL SAFELY FOR AT HOME T. R.

Good Night's Sleep Refreshed
Him After His Journey From Chicago

SLEEPS MOST OF THE DAY; WIFE GUARDS HIS REST

Door-bells Disconnected at Sagamore; Dixon and Perkins
to be First Visitors

OYSTER BAY, Oct. 23.—Colonel Roosevelt awoke this morning greatly refreshed after a good night's sleep. He ate a hearty breakfast and prepared to have the wound in his chest dressed.

The Colonel will receive Senator
Joseph Dixon and George W. Perkins
tomorrow as the first visitors to Saga-more Hill. Mrs. Roosevelt is watching the Colonel's every move, fearing
he will over-exert himself.

By order of Mrs. Roosevelt, all the door-bells at Sagamore Hill have been disconnected. The Colonel spends most of his time sleeping, and his wife
is determined that he shall be undisturbed.

DOCTORS NOT SURE AS TO

FURTHER CAMPAIGN WORK
When the ex-president's physicians left him last night at dusk they gave out this bulletin, impressing their insistence that Roosevelt devote himself to solid rest:

"Colonel Roosevelt has stood the journey well, but, of course, is tired.
The wound is still wide open and oozing serum. Rest and quiet are now essential to him, to avoid possibilities of wound infection. While Colonel Roosevelt is extremely anxious to take up the work of the campaign, we are not willing to say at this time that
that will be possible.

(Signed) "Dr. Joseph A. Blake,
George E. Brewer, Alexander S. Lambert and Scurry L. Terrell."

NEW LOS ANGELES TIMES BUILDING WAS DEDICATED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Informal
dedication of the new Times building,
First and Broadway, was celebrated at noon yesterday by the owners and employees in the nature of a family
"house warming."

For the occasion the new stone structure was decorated within and without. Flags were banished along the Broadway wall, giving the effect of a fort adorned for a military holiday. The rooms within were practically ablaze with huge bouquets, presents of friends, and many of them gifts from one department to another.

It was a family affair entirely, the workers celebrating their return to the home of the paper, one of the finest newspaper plants in the world,
and at the same time paying a tribute to the martyred members of the force who lost their lives on October 1, 1910, when the Times building was destroyed with dynamite.

An "erection" tablet, reciting the sermon of the occasion was levered
into place, with General Harrison Gray Otis presiding over the ceremonies.

DRAMATIC SCENES AT MURDER TRIAL

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 23.—Dramatic scenes were enacted today at the trial
of Hubert G. Lewis, the slayer of C.
H. Toliver, the inventor of an airship,
and his wife, Kate Toliver.

Mrs. Ellen Lewis, wife of the accused, occupied the witness stand.
She declared that she had been not only criminally assaulted by Toliver,
the slain man, but that the latter's wife assisted her husband in his purpose. When she had finished her pitiful story the jurors wept and Mrs.
Lewis broke completely down. Lewis ran to his wife's side and supported her from the witness stand, kissing
her repeatedly. The court adjourned to allow the woman to recover.

DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH

DENIES REPORTED ILLNESS
PARIS, Oct. 23.—The Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Consuelo Vanderbilt, denied last night that she is about to undergo an operation for appendicitis. She was seen at the Ritz Hotel where she was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mackay and appeared to be in good health.

So Says Edward Sheehan Who Has Estimated Matter of Votes Most Carefully

70 PERCENT OF THE WOMEN ARE FOR PROGRESSIVES

La Follette Will Not Vote for Either President Taft, Wilson nor T. R.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 23.—Edward
Sheehan, president of the Roosevelt Republican Club here, announced that a careful canvass of the situation in this county leads him to believe that Col. Roosevelt and Gov. Johnson will carry it by 1000. He says 70 per cent of the women of the State will vote
the Progressive ticket, and he feels confident that California is safe for Roosevelt.

LA FOLLETTE TO VOTE FOR

NONE OF THE CANDIDATES
LA CROSSE, Wis., Oct. 23.—Neither Wilson, Roosevelt nor Taft will receive La Follette's vote, according to a statement made by the Senator today. He said: "I intend to maintain an independent position in the presidential race. If Wilson shows power
as a Progressive, I want to help him,
but I don't know what a two-year
Progressive can do. I propose to fight
him if he weakens under the pressure
that is certain to be brought to bear
on him."

NEBRASKA TAFT ELECTORS TO

BE LISTED REPUBLICANS
LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 23.—The supreme court of Nebraska today upheld the district court's decision that the Taft electors on the Nebraska ballot should be listed as Republicans
and the Roosevelt electors as Progressives.

TAFTS LEAVE BEVERLY FOR

GOOD SO RESIDENTS BELIEVE
BEVERLY, Oct. 23.—President Taft and family closed the summer capital
today and returned to the White House in an automobile. Secretary
Knox, who was visiting the president left for Maine. The residents here do not believe the Tafts will return here
no matter how the election results.

Odds of 4 to 1 on Wilson
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The odds of four to one, at which bets are being placed in Wall Street on Wilson for President, were more firmly established than ever yesterday. An unusually large amount of Tammany money
was offered during the day on the Democratic candidate at this quotation.
Large sums were also wagered on William Sulzer, the Democratic candidate for Governor, at 8 to 5.

MCMANARAS AND

MCMANIGAL ONLY

Such Will be Stand of Defense
in Trial of Labor Leaders in Dynamiting Case

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—Indications of how the attorneys will attempt to clear the forty-seven members of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers charged with illegally transporting dynamite, was given here today in the cross-examination of Mary Dey, John J. McNamara's former stenographer.
Miss Dey left the stand with her story
unshaken but the questions of Attorney Harding indicated that the defense intends to admit that the Mc-Namaras and Ortie McManigal did everything charged, but that the other defendants knew nothing about the dynamitings.

ROBERT BARR, WELL

KNOWN NOVELIST,

DIES SUDDENLY

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Robert Barr,
the Scottish novelist and editor of the Idler, died during Monday night
of heart failure at his residence at Woolingham, Surrey. He had been ill for a month.

Robert Barr was as well known in America as in England. He was educated at Toronto and was an honorary M. A. of the University of Michigan.

At one time he was connected with the editorial staff of the Detroit Free Press.

POLITICAL NEWS OF

MOVEMENT AFOOT AGAINST JOHNSON

Los Angeles and Frisco to Bar
Him From Boxing Game—
Murder Charge Rumored

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—A general movement is afoot to drive Champion Jack Johnson from the boxing game. Promoter McCarey today said:
"Johnson will never box, even in exhibition, again in Los Angeles as long as I am promoting. His treatment of the Cameron girl's mother is a disgrace to his own race."

James Coffroth, the San Francisco
promoter, expressed the same opinion, and said Johnson should never again fight in San Francisco.

MURDER MAY BE ADDED

TO THE LIST—CHARGES

AGAINST JOHNSON, ET AL.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 23.—Detectives searching for the motive that caused five men to shoot pretty Rose Bunnie on a lonely road last night,
found the card of Mrs. Alice Aldrich, Chicago, in her pocket. Mrs. Aldrich is the woman who is pushing the prosecution of Jack Johnson. It is believed the crime of murder may be added to the long list of charges against the champion's friends.

WHITE GIRL GAVE UP

JACK JOHNSON TODAY

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Miss Lucille
Cameron, of whose abduction Jack Johnson is accused, decided to throw the negro over today. She told her mother: "I am ready to give Jack up
now. I want to go home and be like other girls."

Mayor Harrison said today: "If I find I am justified in revoking Jack Johnson's liquor license, I shall do so."

MOUNT LYELL MINE

STILL AFIRE—DEAD

BODIES MUST WAIT

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 23.— Rescuers endeavoring to penetrate into Mount Lyell mine, where 800 men were entombed several days ago, today reached the 700-foot level. They reported conditions such that they will be unable to recover the bodies
of the scores of dead for a long time.
The fire is still raging in the mine.

PUBLIC DEFENDER NEEDED

Rev. Dana Bartlett Sounding Public

as to Creation of Such an Office

in the Near Future

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Looking to the increase of foreign population,
as well as the added number of indigns in California following the opening of the Panama Canal, Dana
W. Bartlett, in his capacity as State Commissioner of Immigration, yesterday sent a number of letters to prominent men throughout the state
asking for expressions of opinion relative to the creation of an office of State Public Defender.

He announced that it was his intention of suggesting to the Immigration Commission that a bill providing for such an office be recommended to the next Legislature.

He refers to the fact that both the Los Angeles county and city charters
provide for such an office, and quotes
the law of the state of Oklahoma,
where a public defender is provided.

BECKER DEFENSE WAS BEGUN TODAY

Whitman Charged by McIntyre
With Making Becker Victim
in Zeal for "Higher-ups"

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—John McIntyre, chief counsel for Police Lieut.
Becker who is charged with instigat-
ing the murder of Gambler Rosenthal,
opened the argument for the defense
with a bitter denunciation of the state witnesses.

"They are vile conspirators and lawless degenerates reeking in filth
and infamy. When this case is over they will be free to murder again if they please."

McIntyre asserted that Becker is a victim of District Attorney Whitman who wanted to "get" a higher-up. He also scathingly denounced Morris Laban who testified that he heard Becker
tell "Bald" Jack Rose that he must get Rosenthal.

"Laban is a murderer at heart, and the prosecution dares to bring this scoundrel manacled from a New Jersey prison to furnish corroborative evidence against my client."

BRIDGEPORT WRECK FROM ROTTEN TIES

Blame for Oct. 3 Wreck Fatal
to 7 is Placed Clearly on New York R. R. Co.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 23.—

Rotten railroad ties were the cause of the wreck on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad near Westport on October 3, in which seven persons were killed. By pulling out spikes with his bare hands, George E.
Everett, a former employee of the road,
demonstrated yesterday at the scene
of the wreck the truth of this statement, made by him at the inquest under Coroner John J. Phelan.

The demonstration placed the blame for the casualty squarely up to the railroad company, which has insisted that the engineer of the wrecked train was responsible. It took place in the presence of Coroner Phelan, a number of newspaper men and several officials of the road, including Vice President
E. G. Buckland, while the spectators watched in amazement.

EPIDEMIC SLAYS

DUCKS OF STATE

AT FEARFUL RATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—A peculiar epidemic prevails among California's wild ducks. Examination of seven ducks found in Kern county, shows the birds to be suffering from the same ailment that caused the death of over a million waterfowl in Utah last year. The ducks of Vista Lake and other California waters are dying at an alarming rate.

BIG BATTLES IN BALKAN STRIFE

Federals Under Gen. Beltran
Are Fighting Rebel Forces
Under Diaz

DIAZ TO BE EXECUTED BY

FEDERALS IF CAPTURED

Manzanillo Said to be Prize of Diaz-Force; Orozco Again
Busy Besieges Monterey

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Contradictory
reports regarding the situation at Adrianople where the Bulgarian and Turkish troops are locked in a terrific battle, continued this forenoon.
The latest news says that thousands have already been killed and wounded. It is believed almost certain here that the Bulgarian advance has been checked.

ENGLAND PREPARES SQUADRON

TO SAIL FOR MEDITERRANEAN

ISLE OF PORTLAND, Eng., Oct.
23.—England's third squadron is preparing today to sail for the Mediterranean to keep in touch with the Balkan situation. The British admiralty still fears the powers will be drawn into the war.

BATTLE AT KIRK KILLISSA

MAY PROVE BALKAN CRISIS

VIENNA, Oct. 23.—Military experts declare that the battle of Kirk Killis-sa, started yesterday, will prove a crisis in the Balkan war. If the Bulgarians win, they will have almost a clear road to Constantinople. Should the Turks be successful, they are expected to follow their advantage and annihilate the Bulgarian army of 120, 000. It is not believed that Bulgaria could recover from such a blow, if de-feared.

KIRK KILLISSA CLASH BIGGEST

SINCE RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR

PARIS, Oct. 23.—Conflicting reports are received concerning the clash at Kirk Killissa between the Turks and Bulgarians. Paris diplomats believe the battle is still in progress.
The Kirk Killissa clash is regarded as the biggest battle since the Russo-Japanese war.

MONTENEGRINS CLOSING IN ON

SCUTARI: BATTLE AT TARABOSCH

BUDAPEST, Oct. 23.—The Montenegrins are closing in on Scutari, according to dispatches. A fierce battle is progressing about Tarabosch.

Turks Flee From Serbs

SOFIA, Oct. 23.—Official telegrams
today to the Serbian Legation, say that the Turks stationed along the Serbian frontier are fleeing in disorder before the attacks of the Serbs.

CALIFORNIA BEST OF ALL

Leads Sister States in Variety of Resources as Well as Opportunities

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22.—A summary of California versus the rest of the Union, showing the many advantages of this state, has been compiled by C. L. Seagraves, general colonization agent of the Santa Fe system.

Briefly summed up, the advantages of California, aside from its beauty and the charm of its climate and the optimistic, happy character of its people, are as follows:

The production of almost nine and a half times as much gold per capita as the entire rest of the United States, the figures being $8.88 versus $0.94 for the nation.

Fruit production of California, except apples and citrus fruits, 20,153,429 bushels. Similar fruit production of the whole United States, 37,099,020 bushels.

Petroleum output of California at last government report, 54,433,010 barrels. Oklahoma, nearest competitor, 47,859,218. Illinois, next nearest rival, 30,898,339 barrels.

California ranks twelfth in population, having leaped from twenty-first in ten years. Increase of population means opportunity for those who are on the ground during the increase.

California ranks sixth in the nation in point of wealth, though she has only enough people to give her twelfth place in population.

The average value per farm in California is $18,308; in New York, $6732; in Ohio, $6994; in Indiana, $8396; in Illinois, $15,505, and in Iowa, $17,259. Thus the worth-whileness of owning a farm in California is evident, as farms here lead farms elsewhere from $1000 to $12,000 in average value.

California spends $187 for education where the rest of the nation spends $100 and gives thirty days more schooling. The arithmetic of it is as follows: Average expenditure per capita of school attendance in California is $58, while the average in the United States is $31. The teachers are better paid, too, for the statisticians show that the average salary for teachers and principals in California is $866, compared to $467 in the United States.

Leads in Railroad Facilities
Some people think that California is "far away," writes Mr. Seagraves, and promptly quotes government reports to show that this state has more and better railroad equipment per capita than all the rest of the Union put together. Value of roads and equipment in California, per capita, is $150, and in the United States $122, making a difference in favor of California of 23 per cent in traveling facilities.

The tonnage of vessels cleared and entered at all United States ports, per capita of population, is 0.66 tons, while that of San Francisco is 0.74 tons, which shows that the California seaport leads the country in per capita shipping by 12 per cent. "And before the Panama canal is opened," adds the Santa Fe man, with emphasis on the word "before."

The total wealth of the United States per capita is $1165 and in California it is $1789, which means that "The general level of human welfare is 53 1/2 per cent higher than it is in the United States at large. California is a region that is 53 1/2 per cent to the good," says Seagraves.

Then he discussed the possibilities for business in hay, fruit, butter, cheese, milk, chickens and eggs, potatoes and other things to show what numberless opportunities await the newcomer as well as the present resident in California.

Wilson of East Newport.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL PUPILS TO HAVE MEDICAL INSPECTION

Pupils in the grammar grades of the public schools are to be regularly examined during the present school year for troubles of the eye, ear and throat. At the meeting of the Board of Education last night Dr. C. H. Brooks, a specialist in these diseases, was engaged to visit each of the schools on one day of each week, in company with a nurse, and make examinations of the pupils. The examiner is not to give any treatments, simply recommending to the parents such action as may be necessary. This is the first time that regular medical examination has been instituted in the local schools, although last year a school nurse was employed. The action is in line with that being taken in recent years by the most progressive schools of the country.

The firm of Zimmerli & Thompson, which has the contract for installing the heating system in the new grammar school, was engaged to overhaul the furnaces in all the schools of the city, and put them in shape for the coming winter. Some of the furnaces are said to be in need of considerable attention.

The board ordered the placing of $3000 additional insurance on the new grammar school, making a total of $11,000 which will be in effect after the first of November.

Attorney Explains Points In Wormersley Will Case

The Wormersley will case, just recently decided by the state Supreme Court, has attracted wide attention on account of the unique points of law involved. It seems that there were some inaccuracies in the published reports of the case, which are corrected in the following communication:

Editor Register:—Whenever a decision of the Supreme Court in any case in which I am interested is of sufficient news interest to the community, I usually give it to the press, with such explanations as do justice to all the parties and make the points of the decision clear.

The Wormersley decision did not seem to me of sufficient public interest to require such a statement; but the accounts published contain such material inaccuracies that fairness to the parties requires their correction. The record of the case shows the following facts:

(1) Mr. Wade, the executor, on December 12, 1910, filed his final account and petition that the estate be distributed to the parties entitled, naming the widow and brothers and sisters as heirs.

(2) On December 23, 1910, Mrs. Blake objected to the distribution among the brothers and sisters only, and asked that she be included as one of the heirs.

(3) On the same day, the widow, Mrs. Wormersley, demurred to Mrs. Blake's petition, and also filed an objection and petition of her own, asking that she receive three-quarters of the real property, on the ground that the devise to the "heirs of the Wormersley family" was uncertain and void. Her reason for asking this in her behalf was that if Mrs. Blake succeeded in convincing the court the will was so elastic as to include herself as an heir, the court might conclude it was so uncertain as to be void, and therefore sustain the widow's right to a three-quarters interest.

French Fried Potatoes "Cottolene"

DID YOU ever eat French Fried Potatoes made with Cottolene? If not, you've never eaten French Fried Potatoes at their best.

Cottolene makes them rich and crisp and appetizing, but never greasy.

If you have been frying and shortening your food with butter, try

Cottolene

It is every bit as good, at less than one-third the price.

If you are using lard for shortening and frying, we would simply suggest that Cottolene is recognized and recommended by leading physicians, domestic science authorities, and culinary experts generally, as being more wholesome, digestible and producing better food.

Cottolene is a vegetable product—pure in source and making—and is bound to be better and safer than lard.

Try this Recipe
Peel the potatoes, shave in very thin slices, or cut in strips, 1/2 in. strips, dice or crescents. Soak in cold water, drain dry on a napkin, and cook few at a time in basket in deep hot Cottolene. Drain and season with salt.

FIRST CAR OF CELERY GONE

Early Vegetable Was Grown on Ranch of Mrs. Lamb at Talbert

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 23.—The first carload of local celery was shipped from here yesterday by the Pacific Vegetable Company of Los Angeles, represented here by E. E. Burger. It was grown on the ranch of Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb near Talbert, the acreage being now under lease to I. Chijo, a Japanese. The celery was of fair quality and brought 25 and 20 cents per dozen. Regular shipments east will hardly begin before early in November as the harvesting will this year be somewhat later than usual. Occasional shipments may be made before that time. This year's crop will be according to present indications of excellent quality and prices are holding up well.

ROOSEVELT THE MAN; A PEN PORTRAIT DONE BY HAMLIN GARLAND

"An Idealist Who Knows How to Get Results," Writes the Author

A great many years ago, Hamlin Garland wrote a number of short stories entitled "Main Traveled Roads," which portrayed the tragedy of western farm life with the pen of a genius. Mr. Garland has been writing ever since then, and among a long list of his well-known works are "Prairie Folks," "The Wayside Crusaders," "Biography of U. S. Grant," "Prairie Songs," "Eagle's Herd," "Her Mountain Lover," "The Long Trail," etc.

Mr. Garland has had an equally interesting career as a reformer. He has always been supporting the men who at the moment represented some vital question of progress. He campaigned for Cleveland, supported Bryan, and advocated the re-election of Theodore Roosevelt.

Unlike a great many writers, Mr. Garland has really lived a life of a westerner. His early days were spent on a farm when he was not at school. He taught school in Illinois. Later on, he took up a claim in McPherson county, South Dakota. He soon after went to Boston and began to write stories. He returned to the West in 1893.

WHY I AM A PROGRESSIVE

By Hamlin Garland

Occasionally—not often—I am asked, "Why are you for Roosevelt and Johnson?" and the only political speech I am capable of making is in answer to that question. I shall be very personal because I believe that all our affairs at the last analysis come down to the personal equation. How does it affect one? What is my relationship to this or that reform or reformer?

I am for the Progressive party because it is a party organized for reform. Its leaders are proved reformers of the practical sort; they have written their deeds in the public records of state and nation.

Having been a reformer for thirty years (a land-reformer and an opponent of special privilege), I have supported the man who at the moment represented some vital principle of progress. I campaigned for Cleveland in the days when we believed he was about to advance the cause of the people. I supported Bryan when he stood for the rights of the many against the demands of the few, and I advocated the re-election of Theodore Roosevelt.

Now when a party organized to ignore sectional lines, knowing no South and no North, no East and no West, is formed, a party with a definite contract with the people, I would be false to my thirty years of reform speaking and writing if I did not instantly throw all my influence for its leaders.

With the platform as a whole, I am single-heartedly in accord. Its humanitarian spirit, its demand for the popular rule, its defense for righteous business and its defiance of selfish and cruel finance, its reassertion of the conservation policy—all these great principles are put forth in language that cannot be mistaken. They are stated in terms which will enable the humblest man to bring an indictment against his leaders if these promises are not carried out.

The wording of this platform is not that of political schemers—it is too plain, too direct, too unequivocal of phrase and paragraph. It is an utterance of men on fire with desire of a nobler state, a purer republic.

I am for the Progressive party because of its leaders; because men like Johnson, and Pinchot, and Beveridge, and Straus are in it and leading it and giving their best to it. It is a party of young and progressive men. A party of idealists led by men of experience and moral conviction.

I am for the party because it recognizes the rights of women and expresses the need of legislation for the protection of women and children. No other party ever dared to make such assertion for the prevention of injustice to the helpless.

When I have said this much my friends say, "Yes, but there is Roosevelt, you are for Roosevelt."

"I AM."

"WHY?"

Then I accept the challenge in my questioner's tone. I am glad to be asked that question. I am for Roosevelt because he is a reformer who reforms. He is an idealist who knows how to get results. He is the greatest all-round political leader in America. His culture, his ancestry, his sense of history, his perception of humor, his prodigious memory, his experience as a public official, his rugged honesty and his marvelous vitality make him the chief figure in this crusade.

No President since Washington has ever put through so many far-reaching measures—and why? Because he was a young President. Most of our Presidents have been old and inert before they took their chairs. Roosevelt was in his youthful, expanding, brave period when he was called by the hand of death to the White House. Handicapped by the policies of his predecessor, he carried himself with such discretion as well as vigor that he was called to an administration of his own. In those four years when he was President in his own right he made a record which has no equal in the history of our executives.

It is easy to start a reform, but it is exceedingly difficult to get a reform idea enacted into law. No man ever went to Roosevelt with a measure of general public importance without getting an instant and ready reply. "That is a good thing, I will advance it." His action in the coal strike, his part in the Russo-Japanese war, his work with Pinchot and Garfield, his building up our policy of conservation, his resistance up to the Pure Food bill, his booking of railway regulation—all these are achievements which are recorded. But there is another less tangible and more far-reaching effect of his personality and that is found in the living, the rejuvenation of our public service. To use a strong phrase, he "jacked up" the public servants all along the line. He was a "live wire," and out of his abounding vitality a thrill of energy, of courage, of resolution radiated till it was felt by the ranger in his lonely forest, the meet inspector in the Chicago jungles and the diplomat at the court of kings.

He would not tolerate incapacity in a general of the army or any other officer. Tireless himself, he was impatient of those who stopped on the field of battle to take an after dinner nap. He was an executive, not a ruminating old judge. He loved youth, vigor and clear perception and admired honest, enthusiastic purpose. So far as he could, he cast his vote for the young candidate. He called the young man of independent fortune into politics. He raised public service to a higher rate of speed, and today he is the leader of a party of young men—men who are young in the power to assimilate novel ideas. He is the leader of those who believe in honest social service and the enforcement of social justice.

"But," my friend insists, "admit all that—and much of it I do admit—is he not a profound egotist? Did he not come between other leaders and the nomination?"

He did—but he did it at the almost universal demand of the Progressives. Let no one deceive himself. There was only one first choice and that was Theodore Roosevelt. No one who attended the conventions in Chicago could have any reasonable doubt of whom the people commanded to serve. There were several substitutes, but only one Roosevelt; there never had been, the others were named simply on the basis of a substitute in case the chief tackle would not play. The presidency should not be a reward, it is an honor, but it is also a service. The President should be fitted for his job the same as any other hired man of the people, and should be subject to the recall the same as any other officer. Roosevelt has had but one term in his own right, but if he had, his experience, his vigor, his wide acquaintance with men and affairs fit him to be a better President than ever before. The talk of a third term is nonsense—the term should be subject to popular will as it is in England, and if the people find their servant useful, there is no reason why they shall not retain him.

Finally I am for Roosevelt because I know the man; for nearly twenty years I have had the honor and the pleasure of his friendship. Our acquaintance began outside of politics and continued outside of politics. When we first met he was police commissioner and a "regular" Republican. I was a young novelist and a Henry George disciple. We met on the common ground of a lover of the best, and a belief in American literature and art. We seldom talked politics. I never asked him for anything for myself or any friend. My visits to him were those of one man of literary tastes to another. I think he found my company inoffensive and perhaps a relief because I did not ask for anything. Once as I was dining with him when he was assistant secretary of the navy, he suddenly leaned back and said: "Think of having a man at my table who knows the difference between a parrot and an appaloosa!"

He permitted me to share his deepest aspirations as a public servant and once wrote in a volume of his essays: "I am trying to make my administration square with the principles expressed in this volume." At another time he said, with profound earnestness: "I am President of the whole people, no matter what their color, creed or condition, and in all questions brought to me for answer I try to get at the equities in the case."

I believe he meant this. I am sure that he has tried in all ways to live up to his expressed idea. It has not been easy, and he has not always found the sources of his information pure. As his judgments and his action had to be based upon the highest authority at hand he has, at times, failed of the ideal course, but I believe that he has continued at all times to act as an honest and high-purposed official should do.

Detractors have been busy, crooked men and crooked business, those who had special privileges to sell and those who wished to steal social values, have leagued against him. His conservation policies were opposed by those who wanted something for nothing and just as the gamblers in Wall Street flew into fury when his action upset certain illegal combinations of capital. Wyoming, Colorado, and Montana have their barons of spoliation just the same as the great railway centers with their regions of stock manipulations and public corruptionists. Whenever the men of special privilege are banded together then you will find enemies of Roosevelt. They poison the public press, they fill the air with clouds of calumny. They have created a monster, a bug-a-boo, a weird devil which they call "Roosevelt."

Over against that I am content to place my knowledge of the real Roosevelt. The considerate gentleman, the man of wide reading, artistic perception and marvellous memory, who loves good books and reads them; who can meet John Morley or Ambassador Bryce on his own ground; who appreciates good music and enjoys good drama; who has made his home the most distinguished meeting place of men of letters, art and social success in America. This is the man I am permitted to know, and it is my duty to say that I am fully admiring—I have an affection for him.

If you would know what Theodore Roosevelt truly is, you must ask John Burroughs, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Albert Shaw, William Allen White or Gifford Pinchot. You will not secure characterizations of the real Roosevelt from a Wyoming sheep-man who thinks the government should furnish him free pastureage for his sheep. Nor from a group of promoters who are grafting water-power from the public domain, nor from those who believe in the special privileges for the few, because Roosevelt is opposed to all these men. His face is set against their aggrandizement and they hate him.

Neither must you go to political opponents, the men who are jealous of his popularity, and bitterly envious of his success. When such men cry "fakir," "four-flusher," you should remember that the man they are denouncing has been for thirty years in public life and that he is in the estimation of Europe the most powerful and most distinguished citizen of our republic. Broadened by his wonderful experience, enriched by his acquaintanceship with the truly great men of the world, he is a candidate who will honor the presidential chair more than the chair could honor him, for we have been that not even the White House can make a small man great or a weak man strong.

Theodore Roosevelt is now in the prime of his manhood, absolutely temperate, with keen sense of humor, hard as nails physically, deeply imbued with a feeling that he has a fight to win, a duty to perform, and no amount of vituperation will avail to prevent him. He will not down because he is a representative man. He is the common American writ large. Not supremely gifted in any one direction but a marvellous balance of faculties. Sevenfold in his endowments he meets the practical politician with the idealist, the statesman with the executive, the peace-maker with the soldier, the diplomat with the priest.

I do not say that he is the greatest soldier, the greatest diplomat, the greatest executive of our day—I am merely repeating the estimate of distinguished Europeans when I say that he is a very extraordinary balance of endowments. What I do contend for is the essential manliness and charm of Theodore Roosevelt. I have been privileged to know him at his own fireside, in his family circle, and among his books. Without violating the proprieties, I may say also that he has the support, the inspiration, I may say almost the captaincy of a serious-minded, charming and very gifted wife, a helpmeet indeed, to whom his instant courtesy and def-

Six Reasons Why You Should Do Business With This Bank

1. Depositing your money in bank makes it absolutely safe from loss by robbers, fire or accident.
2. With a bank account you can pay your bills by check. The canceled check is a legal receipt for payment. You cannot be made to pay the bill twice.
3. A check book makes all your money available at any moment, and you are never bothered about making change.
4. The bank keeps your books. Every deposit and the amount of the checks you draw are carefully entered in your pass book by expert bookkeepers, so that you know where you stand at the end of the month.
5. Nearly every man needs to borrow money at some time. If you are well known at the bank, through your bank account, it is easy to get accommodation.
6. Every check you write is an advertisement of your good business habits and solid worth, which has the effect of raising you in the general esteem of your neighbors.

Any one of the above reasons is of itself sufficient to influence you to open a bank account. It will only take a short acquaintance with this bank, and the facilities it offers, to convince you that six reasons are only a few of many more why you should make it your financial home. Now is the time to begin the practice of these most approved business methods, and to make this bank what we want it to be—

COMMON SENSE RULES

The Taft Republican committee has undertaken to advise the Republicans to vote for Democrats. It is easy enough to lead a horse to water, but when it comes to making him drink, that's another matter. It is easy enough to advise Republicans to vote for Democrats, but getting them to follow that advice is a feat no politicians in this neck of the woods will ever be able to accomplish. There are plenty of men in this world who might cut off their noses to spite their faces, but the voters of Orange county have too much common sense to be found among that kind of people. It is true that the ballot shows no printed list of electors willing to vote for Taft. The reason no such list appears is that the Taft leaders of the state willfully failed to take the steps necessary to get the list there. A Republican who has sincerely believed in Taft has a choice of four or five things. He may not vote on election day; he may vote for Roosevelt, or Wilson, or the candidate of some other party; he may write in a list of names that he thinks favorable to Taft. Staying away from the polls, voting for some other candidate than Roosevelt or Wilson and writing in a Taft list are about equal so far as affecting the ultimate result is concerned. Clearly, the Taft man in order to take an effective part on election day must decide between Roosevelt and Wilson.

If he is a resident of Orange county, let him think the matter over. Let him rid himself of pique and the excitement of the campaign, and look the matter over. What good reason is there for any Orange County Republican voting for Wilson, or Kettner, or Hart or Mills? The whole thing resolves itself into one simple question: Will he vote for a fair, square protective tariff or will he vote for free trade? Will he risk his county's interests with an administration that does not believe in the principle of protective tariff as applied to, let us say, oranges, lemons, sugar beets, walnuts, dried fruits and a few other products that we might mention, all of particular moment here in Orange county.

Most assuredly the Taft Republican Committee is in the position of the man who led a horse to water but could not make him drink. Orange county Republicans will not swallow the free trade liquid.

ROOSEVELT

Do you, Mr. Voter, observe that all the reactionary newspapers and all the political bosses and all the men who for years have been trained in the methods of the bosses are against Colonel Roosevelt for the presidency?

They do not deny that he made the greatest president this country has had since the reconstruction period. The Republican convention of 1908, which nominated President Taft, extolled him to the skies. We have seen statements from the lips of leaders and delegates to that convention that made Mr. Roosevelt almost superhuman. No greater eulogy on a president of the United States was ever delivered than was tendered him by that convention. Listen to the following, which was excerpted from the 1908 platform:

"In this greatest era of American advancement the Republican party has reached its greatest service under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt. His administration has been AN EPOCH IN AMERICAN HISTORY. In no other period since the national sovereignty was won under Washington, or preserved under Lincoln, has there been such mighty progress in those ideals that make for justice, equality and fair dealing among men. THE HIGHEST ASPIRATIONS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE FOUND A VOICE. Their most exalted servant represents the best aims and worthiest purposes of all his countrymen. American manhood has been lifted to a nobler sense of duty and obligation. Conscience and courage in public station and higher standards of right and wrong in private life have become cardinal principles of political faith."

THE PATRIOTIC GREEKS

A transformation is being witnessed, as the nameless toiler who has been blacking boots or selling bananas suddenly throws off the harness of trade, and blossoms into a soldier. The low estate of the Greek in American life is one of the tragedies of history. His ancestors were the greatest poets, philosophers, sculptors, and soldiers that the world ever produced. Yet here today the son is wheeling his little push cart about the big cities paying his $2 fine when he violates mysterious ordinances printed in signs as illegible to him as a Chinese laundry bill to us. With all this lowly position, his mother country the foothill of Europe, there is an ardent imagination and glowing hope about the Greek which will some day assure him a higher place. The courtly blood of polished ancestors still lingers in the Greek.

The Greek is a money maker. To his mind Greek's low estate is not due to lack of martial spirit, but to the want of a strong foundation on the gold of the bankers. So he is never an idler about American streets. The push cart of today is the fruit stand of tomorrow, the retail store of

Why Roosevelt and Johnson Appeal to Women of the State

San Francisco Bulletin: Half a million women in California won the ballot a year ago in a progressive revolution by which the commonwealth caught up with the social and economic progress of several decades. By the alteration then made in her frame and theory of government, California turned her face to the future and identified itself with a movement for human betterment which is working like leaven in every country of the civilized world.

Equal suffrage was not the least of the gains which were then achieved. Without it there could not be complete democracy, the path of Progress was blocked.

In itself the suffrage is merely a political privilege. It merely allows women to enter a booth on election day and make marks on a slip of paper. It is in no sense of the word an end in itself. In the early days of the movement the suffrage may have been sought for its own sake. It may then have been argued by some that it was not chivalrous in men to keep the pretty plaything for themselves. But that stage is long past. The suffrage has become an instrument for the accomplishment of those humanitarian reforms in which women, by their very natures, are vitally interested.

Wherever woman suffrage exists, and wherever women are striving for it, the question is now, "How shall we make this new power count for the advancement of womanhood?"

Thousands of women have asked themselves this question with a quickening sense of the new responsibility which rests upon them. The feminine vote of California is an earnest vote, anxious to render service. It is made up, in the words of the chivalrous old toast, of "wives, mothers and sweethearts." They are in no sense an alien element suddenly projected into public affairs. On the contrary, they are, in the main, a force for good whose powers have just been extended.

Hiram Johnson's record in this state is no secret. Neither is that of Theodore Roosevelt in the nation. It requires little delving, little culling over of forgotten speeches, to discover where these men have stood. They have stood, and are standing, for those upon whom society has laid burdens too heavy for them to bear.

Herein is this appeal to women. Women are not fond of theories, but they are quick to grasp actualities. They respond when a party leader points out tangible suffering and tangible injustice and takes it as his platform that they shall cease to be.

That is why they respond to Roosevelt and Johnson, and that is why they will vote for them in November. There is no need of a straw ballot to forecast that vote. The womanhood of California will vote as it trans its children, with a calm eye on the long years to come and a determination that neither their children nor any mother's children shall be made the victims of remediable wrongs.

next year, and the wholesale business of the future.

He is throwing away all these air castles, and indeed quite substantial prospects, for the idealistic dream of a free Greece. These thousands who are marching on this hazardous mission from every quarter of this country is a lesson in patriotism to all countries.

It is a very real and tangible sacrifice. Most of them will never come back if there is any real fighting. Their little savings, their foothold in business, will be exchanged for a grave by the Aegean sea, the crippled future of a wounded man, or helpless poverty and enfeeblement. But the bright faces swarming into the steerages of the Mediterranean ships show no anticipation of this.

Fruits, raisins, oranges, lemons, sugar beets, beans, dried fruits, barley—virtually every industry of California needs a protective tariff. It is unthinkable that the state's producers want Wilson and free trade. The prosperity of the cities is absolutely dependent on the farmers, and they are equally as interested in the vital doctrine of protection. Roosevelt and Johnson stand for protection and for a tariff commission, which is the only proper method of curing tariff abuses.

P. E. APPRECIATES LOYAL EMPLOYEES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific Electric, has issued annual passes over the system to 514 employees. Those who have been in service more than seven years received annual passes today for themselves. Those who have been in the service twelve years receive passes for themselves and families.

The passes were issued by Shoup without request, as a token of appreciation for service rendered the company.

Of the total passes issued 464 were in the operating department.

WOODROW WILSON

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

being summoned before the bar of the American people as a witness for and in behalf of the Republican party, was examined and testified as follows:

Question: Did you or did you not, in your History of the American People, refer to the years of 1893 to 1896, when the Democratic party was in power, as "THOSE FATAL YEARS OF DEPRESSION?"

Answer: I did.

Question: Did you or did you not describe the terrible conditions in those years in the following language, upon pages 235 and 236 of Volume 5: "A great poverty and depression had come upon the western mining regions and upon the agricultural regions of the west and south," and "Men of the poorer sort were idle everywhere and filled with a sort of despair. All of the larger cities and manufacturing towns teemed with unemployed workingmen, who were WITH THE UTMOST DIFFICULTY KEPT FROM STARVATION by the systematic efforts of organized charity?"

Answer: I did.

Question: Did you or did you not, after describing this distress in detail and relating that millions of American gold went across the sea to pay foreign creditors, use these words, on page 263: "NOT UNTIL THE YEAR 1897, WHEN THE REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION CAME IN, DID THE CRISIS SEEM TO BE PAST?"

Answer: I did.

The Republican party asks no better witness against a change from sixteen years of Republican prosperity to four years more of Democratic distress than Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate for president.

This Is Part of Tariff Plank in the Progressive Platform

TARIFF—We believe in a protective tariff which shall equalize conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries both for the farmer and the manufacturer, and which shall maintain for labor an adequate standard of living.

Primarily the benefit of any tariff should be disclosed in the pay envelope of the laborer. We declare that no industry deserves protection which is unfair to labor or which is operating in violation of federal laws. We believe that the presumption is always in favor of the consuming public.

We demand tariff revision because the present tariff is unjust to the people of the United States. Fair dealing toward the people requires an amount of downward revision of those schedules wherein duties are shown to be unjust or excessive. The Democratic party is committed to the destruction of the protective system through a tariff for revenue only—a policy which would inevitably produce widespread industrial and commercial disaster. We demand the immediate repeal of the Canadian reciprocity act.

S. J. Jackman, Chairman.

W. H. Thomas, Secretary.

Republican County Central Committee, Orange Co

COURTESY FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Party Given Yesterday for Miss Iva Miller in Honor of Approaching Nuptials

Of the pleasant affairs recently given for Miss Iva Miller, who is to be one of the autumn's brides, that of yesterday afternoon at the Clyde Walker home on French street with Mrs. Clyde Walker and Miss Jeanette McFadden as hostesses, was one of the prettiest. About fifty ladies, friends of Miss Miller, were guests. Progressive whist proved an interesting diversion, high score being achieved by Mrs. H. G. Hull, whose trophy was a handsome embroidered sofa cushion. A pretty hand-painted plate, the second prize, went to Mrs. E. B. Burns, and Mrs. Addie Collins was consoled with a dainty willow basket filled with bonbons.

The small tables used for the whist games were later utilized for the refreshment courses. Unique in these were the individual ice creams moulded as miniature baskets with candy handles clasped with ribbon and a spray of maidenhair fern. In each basket were a tiny pear, a strawberry and an apple shaped from the cream and tinted in their own colors. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Misses Fannie Smart, Mabel McFadden and Jennie McFadden.

The house decorations were of cardinal and white, the colors of Stanford University. Miss Miller's college, and ivy was used as greenery, in compliment to Miss Iva's name. The ivy design was also seen in the score cards and table favors.

Surprised the Morrow

On the 21st day of October in the year 1886, Mr. A. H. Morrow and Miss Christina V. Barclay, decided to take each other for better or for worse. After journeying together on the Main Line of Life for 26 years, they thought it would be a good idea to celebrate that twenty-sixth anniversary by visiting the "City of the Angels" for a little recreation, and in trying to live over some of the happy events that took place long ago.

This was their own private plan, but some friends were wise enough to find out about it, and with the hospitable ideas natural to the glorious West, they thought it would be the proper thing to have a grand social "round-up" at the close of that trip to Los Angeles; so at about 7:30 o'clock, a party of surprised walked in on the surprised ones, and they certainly had a program of jollity outlined for the evening. Everybody was happy, and all joined to relate some of the wonderful things that had happened to them on their matrimonial trips.

WHITE RIBBONERS MET

Arrange Plans for Reception and Banquet for Teachers of City Schools, Nov. 8

(By Mrs. Lea Warren)

The W.C.T.U. held a very enthusiastic and largely attended meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Sarah Finley, 634 French street. The large room was filled with members and friends of the union. The subject was: "Sunday School Temperance and Systematic Giving," with the program in charge of Miss Sarah Finley and Mrs. J. H. Scott. Miss Finley led the devotional service. Mrs. Frank McElree presided at the piano during the praise service. Miss Finley, local superintendent of temperance work of the Sunday schools, conducted the hearing of reports of the different Sunday schools of the city. Mrs. A. A. Jones spoke for the South Methodists, Mrs. Rogers the First Methodists, Mrs. A. H. Nickell, Congregationalists, Miss Cox, First Baptists, Mrs. M. E. Ward, First Presbyterians, Miss Sarah Finley, United Presbyterians.

Mrs. J. H. Scott gave a very interesting chemical demonstration as the best temperance illustration, from the Immanuel Baptist church. Mrs. Scott, who is county superintendent of Sunday school temperance work, also gave a splendid talk on "Figures That Talk," illustrating it by charts.

Miss Finley, county superintendent of systematic giving, made a talk on that subject, and distributed literature.

Pretty features of the program were a recitation by little Grace Smiley and the singing of a song, "Temperance Bells," by the Fowler children.

At the close of the program the president, Mrs. Lea Warren, spoke on plans for the banquet and reception to be given the city teachers, the city school board and pastors of the city, on Friday evening, Nov. 8. The banquet will be served in the First Methodist church at 6:30 o'clock, the reception taking place after the banquet. All members of the W.C.T.U. attending are asked to have their names placed on with a white ribbon bow. Members are also urged to be ready to respond generously when the solicitors call on them.

The following are the committees that have been appointed, and each chairman is asked to notify her committee:

Program—Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. S. M. Davis, Mrs. J. N. Anderson. Decoration—Mrs. Winbigler, Mrs. Stafford, Mrs. Nora Davies, Mrs. F. H. McElree, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. A. H. Nickell.

Reception—Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Mrs. J. G. Quick, Mrs. Crossier, Mrs. E. H. Prince, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. H. C. Dawes, Mrs. W. T. Mitchell, Mrs. A. A. Jones.

Entertainment—Mrs. Will Anderson, Mrs. Anna Gale, Mrs. Jessie Burns, Mrs. W. B. Tedford, Mrs. Anna Hill, Mrs. Leigh Galloway, Mrs. F. H. McElree, Mrs. J. A. Wilkes, Mrs. Geo. Heil, Mrs. J. H. Rankin, Mrs. Thea, Mrs. Belle Rogers, Mrs. Harry Dean, Mrs. Pendleton.

Refreshment—Mrs. J. E. Kellogg, Mrs. W. B. Tedford, Mrs. J. H. Rankin, Mrs. Shields, Mrs. E. Van Allen, Mrs. F. Jayne, Mrs. Titchener, Mrs. Anna Gale, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. W. L. Innes, Mrs. Steele Finley, Mrs. M. E. Ward, Mrs. R. M. Wallace, Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mrs. Frambes.

Table and Seating—Mrs. Dr. Raugh, Mrs. Jessie Burns, Mrs. Belle Rogers, Mrs. Quick, Mrs. Geo. Post, Mrs. M. L. Tillotson.

Committee—Mrs. Geo. Heil, Mrs. Vawter, Mrs. T. B. Elliott, Mrs. Frambes, Mrs. W. B. Tedford, Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Mrs. Will Anderson, Mrs. W. T. Mitchell, Mrs. A. H. Nickell, Mrs. J. H. Rankin, Mrs. C. W. Burns, Mrs. Thursty, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Warren.

The next meeting, on Franchise, will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary, 335 Chestnut avenue, Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Philatheas Met

Twenty-four members of the Philatheas class of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Tustin of 520 Sycamore street last night. The girls had with them fancy work and spent the evening most pleasantly. Refreshments by the hostess closed the happy event.

Halloween Social

The members of the Young Married People's Class of the First M. E. church who did not attend their class social which was held at the church yesterday evening missed a rare treat. Each newcomer was met on the landing and in the hall by ghostly figures and received a nice (an ice) hand shake which caused many shivers and shrieks.

The class-room was beautifully decorated with Halloween jack-o'-lanterns, black cats, witches and also with beautiful chrysanthemums. The usual diversions of fishing for apples, telling fortunes and pie-eating contests were indulged in.

During the business session of the evening it was decided that the next

Steam Heat Brings Out the Wool-Itch

YOU can save yourself from that annoyance when you wear Duofold—

Not a single fibre of wool touches the skin—all the wool is outside—in a light weight outer fabric which will keep out the cold without irritating the skin—joined by firm widely-spaced stitching to a soft inner lining of thin cotton.

Duofold can't scratch—there isn't a thread of wool in the inner fabric. The woolen outer fabric keeps the natural heat in and the cold out—it draws the perspiration through the cotton lining, absorbing it and thus doing away with the clammy stickiness of the heavy all-wool garment.

Improved Duofold Health Underwear Guaranteed Satisfactory

Duofold is pre-shrunk. Everyone who has struggled with shrunken, heavy weight unstretchable all-wool garments will appreciate Duofold. It is soft and shrunk before the fabric is cut. Being less than half the weight of the ordinary all-wool garment it is very elastic.

meeting of the class would be a turkey supper to be held at the church on the evening of Tuesday before Thanksgiving Day.

Several new members were added to the roll, making a total enrollment of sixty-three. Music was enjoyed and refreshments, suitable to the season, were served.

Those who did not miss this rare treat were the Mr. and Mrs. George Heil, A. H. Thea, George Barrows, R. H. McArthur, O. M. Newman, Warren Freeman, D. W. Stearns, Will O'Brien, B. J. Warner, G. Breeding, F. E. Emet, O. H. Dunlap, E. Blauer, George Post, Mrs. Winbigler and Miss Coate.

Nature Study Club

The Nature Study Class of the Ebell Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wilkes, 2610 North Bush street, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Ladies are requested to bring any specimens they wish to study under a high power microscope.

Observed Five Birthdays

Nearly two dozen maids and matrons who are in the cheerful habit of getting together once a month, had a merry time last night when one of these monthly assemblages was held at the E. B. Smith home on Birch street. They celebrated the birthdays of five of the members, all occurring within the month. The honorees were Mrs. E. B. Sprague, Mrs. Herbert Rankin, Misses Mary Wood, Lotta Cloyes and Esther Patterson.

A five-course dinner was enjoyed at 7 o'clock, with Halloween decorations to enliven the scene. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way.

Those in the company were Misses Robbie Jones, Mary and Bernice Shewbury, Laura Panstermacher, Mary Wood, Mary Smart, Lotta and Inez Cloyes, Bessie Lewis, the Misses Eagleson, Misses Jess Hill, Mame Brightwell, Susan Claycomb, Leslie Smith, Esther Patterson, Blanche McDowell, Hattie Whidden, Mrs. Clarence Gustlin, Mrs. Herbert Rankin, Mrs. E. B. Sprague.

Home of Dwarf Races

In Luzon, the Philippines, there dwells a race of dwarfs known as the Aetas, whose average height is four feet eight or nine inches. They live in the mountains of the interior, thus bearing out the theory of one authority upon little peoples that most, if not all, of the dwarf races survive only in the most inaccessible parts of the continents or islands to which they belong.

Music and the Drama

The Philharmonic Course

Under the direction of L. E. Behymer, the well-known impresario of the Pacific coast, the Philharmonic course for the season 1912-13 began last week at the Auditorium in Los Angeles with two incomparable concerts by Mme. Gadsdell, one of the greatest Wagnerian sopranos of the century. A large number of Santa Anans attended both evenings and many are also intending to hear the second event tonight, when Riccardo Martin, the great American tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company will be heard in conjunction with Rudolf Ganz, the eminent Swiss pianist.

Clarence Eddy of Chicago, a famous organist and his talented wife, who possesses a wonderful contralto voice, are to give two recitals this week on Thursday evening and Saturday afternoon and on Friday evening of this week the Lombardi Pacific Coast Grand Opera Company begin a two weeks' engagement at the Auditorium in a series of extremely attractive operas, the first one to be given being Puccini's beautiful "La Boheme."

Choral Society

The second regular rehearsal of the Santa Ana Musical Association was held last night in the First Baptist church. A goodly number of singers were present and much interest is evinced in the progress of the society. It is expected that the first concert will be given soon after the holidays.

Violin Recital

A very interesting violin recital was given last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Richards, Fruit and F streets, by the pupils of Prof. Andrist's Academy of Music. Nearly all of the pupils were present. The orchestra, which consisted of twenty-five violins and mandolins, with piano accompaniment, played several overtures, selections and serenades with much success.

Special mention should be given to Master Milton Foster, 11 years old, who played Schumann's Traumeri on his violin from memory with such expression and feeling that it greatly impressed his comrade pupils. He well deserved the applause which his fellow pupils and the audience bestowed upon him. Mr. Andrist, his teacher, received very flattering congratulations on his pupils' excellent work.

Orange News: An ordinance fixing a special election on public utility matters for November 12 was passed last evening by the board of trustees. The election is directed at the gas rate problem, although ten questions will be submitted to a vote. The trustees desire to relinquish the control of gas rates to the Railroad Commission. If a majority of the vote is cast in favor of granting control of the gas rate-making power to the Railroad Commission, the city will be relieved of the necessity of defending its $1.15 gas rate in the courts. An application for an injunction against the city to restrain the enforcement of the $1.15 rate is now under consideration by the superior court.

HIRAM JOHNSON, "MAN OF PECULIAR DESTINY"

Twice Called to Leadership of a Popular Cause—Eminently Fitted to Take up The Roosevelt Leadership

By E. A. DICKSON, Staff Correspondent of the Los Angeles Tribune

ALLIANCE, O. Oct. 23.—Governor Johnson was introduced to a great Chicago meeting recently as a "man of peculiar destiny." The characterization was not inappropriate. His brief public career has been almost without a precedent. His rapid transition from local obscurity to a figure of nation-wide prominence is without parallel.

Twice he has had the leadership of a popular cause imposed upon him by attempted assassination, although he himself was not the object of the assassin's bullet on either occasion. The first time was when Francis J. Heney was shot down while conducting the famous graft trials in San Francisco. Some one was needed to take up work of the injured prosecutor, and Hiram W. Johnson, the attorney, was chosen. He carried the graft fight to a successful conclusion.

Now again by the untoward act of a would-be assassin, he required to assume the leadership. He has taken up the burden that Roosevelt was compelled to lay down.

The two events form a peculiar parallel, they differ chiefly in scope. The leadership assumed in the one case was confined to a state; in the present emergency, the leadership is national.

It is fortunate indeed for the Progressive cause that there was so able a man to take Roosevelt's place in the critical period of the campaign.

RIVERSIDE ORANGE GROWERS FAVOR HOME AUCTION PLAN

Riverside Press: About 70 orange growers, representing 300 cars of fruit, met last night at Highgrove and went on record as favoring the "cash in California" method of disposing of the products of the orange groves of the district.

E. F. Wolever presided at the meeting. He is secretary and manager of the Sugar Leaf Orange Growers' association. Every man present is in favor of bringing the market to California, where the fruit is grown, whether it be the auction at Colton, at Los Angeles exchange or at the packing house.

The Highgrove growers demand that they be paid for their fruit in California. They declare that they are tired tramping their fruit over the country, and the time is here when they demand that the middleman take some of the risk.

A meeting will be held in Pomona tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the matter of bringing the buyers to California. J. M. McCollum, Harrison Kerrick and E. F. Wolever are the representatives who will attend the Pomona meeting.

The resolutions adopted follow: Whereas, widespread and we believe, well-grounded dissatisfaction exists among the citrus growers of California over the "selling delivered," "price on arrival," plan of marketing the state's citrus crop, which plan, we hold, places the grower utterly at a disadvantage, and puts him at the mercy of the arbitrary, self-aggrandizing broker 3000 miles away, and also at the mercy of a fluctuating market and shipments by tramp cars with consequent losses en route, so that the broker at the other end of the line has every advantage, while the grower must assume all the risks and be a victim of selfish manipulation by these eastern jobbers who can fix their own prices on our fruit.

Resolved, that we, growers of the Highgrove district, in mass meeting assembled, this 21st day of October, 1912, do respectfully but firmly represent that, as part of this supreme controlling power within the exchange, we are emphatically opposed to a continuance of the "selling delivered," "price on arrival" plan; that we regard it as having outlived its usefulness and as being of no benefit to the grower, but, on the contrary, being a disadvantage and very marked detriment to him, handicapping him in marketing his fruit to the best advantage and giving to the eastern broker the benefits that should accrue to our growers; and be it further

Resolved, that we believe if this question were submitted to unbiased vote of all the exchange growers that the "cash in California" plan would carry almost unanimously and the "selling delivered" plan would be correspondingly condemned; we contend that the "selling delivered" method of marketing is throttling and ruining the citrus industry and must be changed at once, or the results will be disastrous to the growers; we believe we voice the sentiments of the masses of growers everywhere in this attitude and have noted the resolutions adopted by growers in other districts heartily favoring the "cash in California" plan; and be it further

Resolved, that we would urge our fellow growers in every district to act promptly and decisively on this matter, and we would respectfully impress upon them and upon the exchange that the will of the growers in this matter is the supreme law by which the exchange should be and must be governed, in the final analysis; co-operation means nothing if the will of the overwhelming majority of the growers, duly expressed, does not become the law of the exchange and govern its action in this regard; and be it further

Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that a fair, untrammelled vote of all growers composing the exchange be had as soon as practicable upon this question of changing to the "cash in California" system of selling; and, should it be found—as we are sure it would be—that the overwhelming majority of the growers favor the change, then that the growers should insist that the exchange make the change at once. We strongly believe that, should the exchange notify the eastern jobbing trade that not another carload of oranges or lemons would be sold delivered, price on arrival, the jobbers would rush representatives to this coast to buy all our product upon our terms, thus giving us, as growers, a square deal in marketing our fruit, which we do not, and cannot get under the present archaic "selling delivered," "price on arrival" system; and we respectfully cite the experience of our Pacific coast apple growers who sell successfully for cash here upon the ground, instead of selling delivered.

This is below the present wholesale market price, but we placed our orders a long time ago and the goods have advanced considerably during the delays of shipment.

This is the price delivered at our wareroom and this price will hold until we have to buy again.

exists among the citrus growers of California over the "selling delivered," "price on arrival," plan of marketing the state's citrus crop, which plan, we hold, places the grower utterly at a disadvantage, and puts him at the mercy of the arbitrary, self-aggrandizing broker 3000 miles away, and also at the mercy of a fluctuating market and shipments by tramp cars with consequent losses en route, so that the broker at the other end of the line has every advantage, while the grower must assume all the risks and be a victim of selfish manipulation by these eastern jobbers who can fix their own prices on our fruit.

Whereas, at the time the California Fruit Growers Exchange was formed and organized, it was decided at that meeting by formal resolution, unanimously adopted, to "sell for cash in California;" however, it is a matter of general knowledge that since then the method of selling has been changed completely and instead of being for "cash in California," the rule has been to "sell delivered, price on arrival," to the material hurt of the masses of the growers; and we are constrained to believe that the abandonment of the "cash in California" plan was owing to a pernicious system of special favors from the railroads—in the form of unlawful rebates—to certain shippers of citrus fruits to influence shipment over certain railroad lines; this rebating practice, however, no longer prevails, to the best of our knowledge, but we respectfully direct attention to and emphasize the fact that this obsolete antiquated "selling delivered" plan had its origin in the nefarious rebating practice—from which the grower never profited, and that there no longer is any defensible reason or excuse for continuing or tolerating this outrageous plan of marketing our citrus crops.

Whereas, the California Fruit Growers exchange, being a co-operative concern, derives its just and rightful powers solely from the growers themselves, through authority delegated to the exchange by them, the growers being the supreme source of power and authority in the exchange; therefore, be it

Resolved, that we, growers of the Highgrove district, in mass meeting assembled, this 21st day of October, 1912, do respectfully but firmly represent that, as part of this supreme controlling power within the exchange, we are emphatically opposed to a continuance of the "selling delivered," "price on arrival" plan; that we regard it as having outlived its usefulness and as being of no benefit to the grower, but, on the contrary, being a

disadvantage and very marked detriment to him, handicapping him in marketing his fruit to the best advantage and giving to the eastern broker the benefits that should accrue to our growers; and be it further

Resolved, that we believe if this question were submitted to unbiased vote of all the exchange growers that the "cash in California" plan would carry almost unanimously and the "selling delivered" plan would be correspondingly condemned; we contend that the "selling delivered" method of marketing is throttling and ruining the citrus industry and must be changed at once, or the results will be disastrous to the growers; we believe we voice the sentiments of the masses of growers everywhere in this attitude and have noted the resolutions adopted by growers in other districts heartily favoring the "cash in California" plan; and be it further

Resolved, that we would urge our fellow growers in every district to act promptly and decisively on this matter, and we would respectfully impress upon them and upon the exchange that the will of the growers in this matter is the supreme law by which the exchange should be and must be governed, in the final analysis; co-operation means nothing if the will of the overwhelming majority of the growers, duly expressed, does not become the law of the exchange and govern its action in this regard; and be it further

Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that a fair, untrammelled vote of all growers composing the exchange be had as soon as practicable upon this question of changing to the "cash in California" system of selling; and, should it be found—as we are sure it would be—that the overwhelming majority of the growers favor the change, then that the growers should insist that the exchange make the change at once. We strongly believe that, should the exchange notify the eastern jobbing trade that not another carload of oranges or lemons would be sold delivered, price on arrival, the jobbers would rush representatives to this coast to buy all our product upon our terms, thus giving us, as growers, a square deal in marketing our fruit, which we do not, and cannot get under the present archaic "selling delivered," "price on arrival" system; and we respectfully cite the experience of our Pacific coast apple growers who sell successfully for cash here upon the ground, instead of selling delivered.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The price on broilers advanced to 24 to 26 cents a pound in the poultry market yesterday, and ducks were quoted up to 14 to 16 cents a pound. There were also slight changes in the selling rate on fryers, roasters and hens, the tendency being rather toward weakness than strength.

The market on butter, cheese and eggs was quiet, and with the exception of butter the receipts were very light. Even receipts of butter were a little under normal, 43,359 pounds. Fifty-one cases of eggs, and 212 pounds of cheese came in.

The high price for fresh eggs in San Francisco has not affected the market here, and some dealers are of the opinion it will not, for the reason that there are some fresh eggs coming in from local sections, and the demand even for these is very light. Nearly all the supply for the city is made up of fresh eggs from the east.

Eastern cheese is cheap on the local market, compared with the price it is bringing in the east, and dealers contend that it does not pay at the present selling rate to ship in the product. Butter is still firm, with no evidence of a change.

A large quantity of cauliflower came on the market yesterday, and the shipments of fresh vegetables have been quite sufficient so far as to supply demand. Some temporary shortages may of course occur, as they did a few weeks ago on account of rain interfering with bringing the garden truck to market. Potato receipts were fair, 2193 sacks, and 1204 sacks of onions came in.

Persimmons, pomegranates, roses and guavas are still considerably in evidence. Receipts of apples were 4812 boxes. Grapes have been less plentiful for the last week or so, and prices are firmer.

Vases Made With Broken China
Get a jardiniere in its rough state, or a large flower pot. Cover thickly with common putty, then press your pieces of china into it—all sizes shapes and colors. The more colors you have the prettier your work will be. As you press the pieces in the putty will ooze up, hiding all raw edges, and this putty you can paint with gold paint. You can wash and regild as often as you wish.

THERE IS ONLY ONE Crop of Land
—James J. Hill.

The last sub-division of the Yucaipa Red Apple land goes on the market this week, 3000 acres, under irrigation, known as the "South Bench" and the very cream of our 11,000 acre tract. Remember there is only one crop of this land. Get in at the beginning. Easy terms of payment.

WHERE IS IT?
Not up north or out on the desert, but right here in Southern California, only 60 miles from Santa Ana. It is NOT cold in winter and it IS cool in summer because the elevation is 3000 feet.

THE LAND
is the very best. It is like a choice bit of Tustin or Placentia. No stones, no brush, no cactus, no bumps or washes on the south bench. No leveling, but ready to plant and irrigate and will raise anything.

THE TRIP
to Yucaipa is well worth while. On the way we pass through the Santa Ana canyon, Corona, Riverside, San Bernardino, Highland and Redlands. At Redlands we take you in our big automobiles to Yucaipa City and through the twenty-five hundred acres of young apple trees to the new sub-division, the south bench. One day's time, and $3.40 is the expense. Go with us this week and see for yourself.

We now have a new plan for non-resident investors, for people who do not want to locate on the land till the trees have grown a year or two. Come and let us explain the method to you.

SENTENCED
AND MARRIED

Heinrichs Gets Divorce, Probation and New Wife All in One Day

A final decree of divorce, a sentence of fifteen years in prison with probation attached, and a second wife were secured by Robert Heinrichs within a period of a few hours at the court house yesterday.

Heinrichs is an Anaheim bicycle dealer, and was arrested last March on a felony charge, his alleged victim being Freda Abraham, at that time fifteen years old. Heinrichs was given a hearing before Justice Cox and held to answer to the Superior Court.

Previously Heinrichs had secured an interlocutory decree from his first wife, Bessie, whom he had charged with improper conduct. The case was continued in the higher court until the divorce could become operative, and yesterday the decree was entered, after which Judge West sentenced Heinrichs to fifteen years in prison, but putting him on probation. The conditions are that he shall report at regular intervals to the probation officer, and that he shall prove a good and faithful husband to the girl he is alleged to have wronged. Following the decree the couple were married in the clerk's office by Justice Cox. Heinrichs gave his age as 25 and the girl as 16.

On Trial for Bigamy

The trial of William Rawlins, charged with bigamy, was begun in the superior court before Judge West this morning. It is alleged that Rawlins was married to Zelma Dickson here in November, 1911, while already having a wife in New Jersey. Both the wives are here to testify in the case. Rawlins is defended by Swofield & Schenk of Los Angeles, and District Attorney West is prosecuting. The jury chosen to try the case is composed of J. J. Reagan, D. A. Bear, W. S. Gregg, Oscar Rosenbaum, Christian Hofer, J. O. Harper, Chas. C. Wagner, W. B. Winans, W. J. Althaver, Samuel Dungan, John LeBar and John Scott.

Suit for Divorce

Allie A. Dixon has filed suit in the superior court for divorce from Charles E. Dixon. Frank D. McClure of Los Angeles is attorney for the plaintiff.

IMPERIAL VALLEY
COTTON IS LEADER

Durango Brand of Cotton Said to be Best in World—U. S. Will Issue Bulletin

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Durango cotton, grown in the Imperial Valley, is the best grown in the world, and has a market value at present of from 22 to 23 cents a pound. This, in substance, is the feature of a report that has reached here from W. E. Wilsie, now in the East as the representative of the Imperial Valley growers.

The new kind of cotton seems to be the best yet introduced into Southern California, for it produces about one bale to the acre and sells for almost double the price of the common variety. It is not as high priced, it is stated, as the Egyptian cotton, but the latter is much more expensive in the matter of picking, and it is not determined if the net revenue from it will be more than from the Durango variety.

The price paid last year for the common variety of cotton was only 7 cents a pound. This year it is reported at 11 to 12 cents a pound. Owing to climatic conditions, the cotton of the Imperial Valley has been bringing a better price on the market than the cotton raised further east.

Wilsie was sent to the East by the Cotton Exchange of the Imperial Valley, to show to manufacturers samples of the local product. He has written from Washington that he had been told by the manufacturers there that his samples showed the best quality of cotton of the world, and a very high price was offered for it. He will visit other manufacturing centers and submit his samples.

Government officials are superintending the growing of cotton in the Imperial Valley, and after the season has closed and the crop has been sold it is expected that a special bulletin concerning Imperial Valley cotton will be issued.

The success of the Durango cotton has encouraged land owners of the Imperial Valley to plan on producing it in the future. The experiments of this year indicate that the cotton and the seed produced from one acre of this kind of cotton will bring to the growers a total of about $100, which is considered excellent.

STOMACH GONE BAD
SOUR, GASSY, UPSET?

When "Pape's Diapiesin" Gets in Stomach All Indigestion Goes

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain remedy in the whole world and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know now it is needless to have a bad stomach.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Diapiesin belongs in your home anyway. It should be kept handy, should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night it is there to give the quickest, surest relief known.

SCHOOL CHILDREN OF STATE TO ASK FOR LIBERTY BELL

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—School children throughout California are being asked to assist in the attempt being made to gain the consent of the municipal authorities of Philadelphia to bring to San Francisco for exhibition in 1915 the "Liberty bell."

Yesterday County Superintendent of Schools Mark Keppel sent out petitions to all schools in Los Angeles county to be signed and dispatched to the municipal authorities at Philadelphia.

JOHN DOE AT LAST LANDED

Brea Druggist Giving This Name Fined $50 for Illegal Booze Selling

The long effort of the authorities to "get something" on John Doe was successful this morning when a gentleman who stated that John Doe was his true name pleaded guilty before Justice Cox to the charge of violating the county local option law, and was fined $50, which he paid.

Some days ago the officers were informed that the owner of the drug store at Brea was selling liquor illegally, and Deputy Sheriff Law went over to investigate. He found with little trouble that the wise ones, by asking for some "coca-cola out of the black bottle," could be served with a fair quality of booze, and Law not only got a drink for himself, but treated a friend, and later secured a bottle of whiskey. A John Doe warrant was made out and served yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Squires and Constable Heard. The defendant put up cash bail for his appearance, and this morning appeared in court and said that he desired to plead guilty, without being represented by counsel. However, he had had legal advice, and acting on the same when asked what his true name was gave it as John Doe. He was let off with a $50 fine.

Alleged Booze Seller

Deputy District Attorney Koepsel, Officers Squires, Heard and Law went to Delhi last night armed with a search warrant giving them power to go through the premises of Feliciano Hernandez, suspected of violating the Wylie liquor law. They found no booze on the place, but lots of evidence, in the shape of several sacks of empty beer bottles, and various empty demijohns. The police had previously secured what they consider good evidence against Hernandez, and he was brought in and placed in jail. This morning he entered a plea of not guilty and his examination was set for November 15, bail being fixed at $500.

Witnesses Disappeared

Several weeks ago Victoriano Losano and Santiago Molino got into a family quarrel at their home on one of the gun club preserves south of Westminster, and in the excitement of the moment Losano beat up Molino with an ax to such an extent that he was compelled to spend some time in the hospital. Meantime Losano was under arrest on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, but when the case was called this morning it was found that Molino and his wife, the only witnesses against the defendant, had disappeared. Losano was released on his own recognizance, and this will probably be the end of the case.

Minor Matters

I Fields and A. Launders, proprietors of a poolroom at Anaheim, pleaded guilty before Justice Cox yesterday afternoon to the charge of circulating indecent literature on their business cards. They paid fines of $15 each.

Maggie Hoffman, who keeps a boarding house in Brea canyon, was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging disturbing the peace, sworn to by one Agnes Penly. It is said that the complainant was a waitress at the boarding house, and after being discharged she and a companion filed charges against the proprietress. The case will be heard October 30.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.

"Men's hearts are failing them for fear," and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present worldwide social, religious and political unrest.

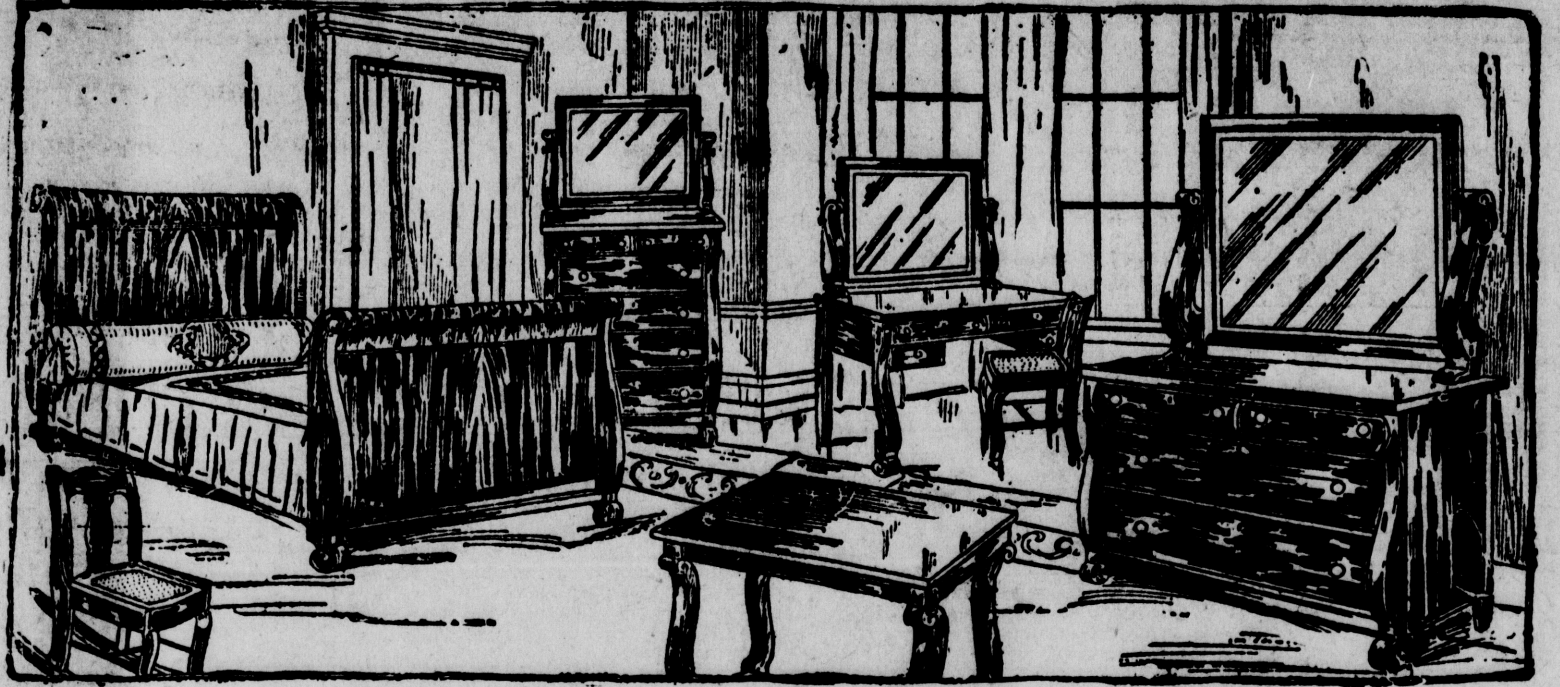

As though by instinct the whole creation, while it groans and travails in pain together, waits for, longs for and hopes for the DAY, calling it the "GOLDEN AGE"; yet men grope blindly because not aware of the great Jehovah's gracious purposes. And to his wondering creatures, looking at the length and breadth, the height and depth of the love of God, surpassing all expectation, He explains: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord; for as the heavens are higher than the earth so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isa. 55: 8, 9.

HIS DUTY TO SUPPORT EVANS

Leading San Diego County Editor Comes Out for Progressive Candidate

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 23.—Consternation spread in the ranks of the Spreckels organization here yesterday when H. P. Rising, editor and proprietor of the Escondido Advance, one of the most prominent back country papers in San Diego county, issued a statement declaring his paper in favor of the election of S. C. Evans, the Progressive Republican nominee for Congress in this district.

"I have concluded that it is a duty I owe to the readers of the Advance to advocate his election," he said. "My investigation has convinced me that the people of the district are to be congratulated upon having a man of Mr. Evans' ideas and standing to be willing to serve them and I am certain that his work in Congress will result in great good to the district."

"I find that for years Mr. Evans has been an earnest advocate of every social move for the uplift of humanity and that, while he is a successful business man and will attend to the commercial interests of the people of the district with all of the ability needed, he will at the same time study the social needs of the people of the country taken as a whole. He is a real friend of the common people and has an earnest desire to better the social and moral conditions of the working classes. His ideas on the tariff are alone sufficient for us to favor him over the other candidates."

Evans has worked for the past week in San Bernardino and Orange counties and has held public meetings in virtually all of the cities. These meetings have been uniformly successful and Evans is confident that he will carry the northern part of the district by a much larger majority than he received at the primary.

PROGRESSIVE RALLY
ON MONDAY EVENING

Local Progressive Republican leaders are preparing for a big rally in the interest of Roosevelt and Johnson to be held at the Opera House next evening, when there will be an address by Charles E. Wheeler, of San Francisco, one of the best known speakers of the state. There will also be an address by Miss Lloy Galpin of Los Angeles, a prominent leader among the Progressive women of the south. There will be music and other features of interest.
